KAUTZ CAUSES A SENSATION.

He Writes a Letter Which May Still Rumble the Germans.

AS BAD AS WHAT
COGHLAN SAID.

It Was a Private Letter and as Such the Administration Will View It.

HE MAY GET A
NOTE OF WARNING.

It Will Not Be in the Nature of a Reprimand, but Simply a Request to Be More Careful About Expressing Himself.

Washington, April 27.—The publication of Admiral Kautz's letter referring to his position at Samoa caused absolute consternation at the navy and state departments at first reading but there was soon exhibited a disposition to minimize the affair because it was clearly apparent that the letter was nothing more than a strictly private communication passing between members of the same family. Nevertheless, coming as it does, close upon Captain Coghlan's indiscretion and following the publication of Judge Chamber's letter to his brother criticizing the Germans in Samoa, the opinion was held that Admiral Kautz's letter could not have other than harmful effect upon the relations between the United States and Germany. The letter was brought to the attention of the president and some sort of a reminder may be sent to the officer to be more careful in his correspondence.

No orders have been issued to the Philadelphia to leave Samoa as the admiral says, so it is probable that he made the statement on that point in the belief that he could adjust the differences between the factions in Samoa within that time.

In official German quarters the letter was not treated very seriously and there was no indication that the German authorities would take cognizance of it. The spirit of fun in the letter appealed to some of the diplomatic officials who laughed heartily over Kautz's description of the young king's make up, and this amusing feature largely offset any irritation which might have been felt over the criticisms contained in the letter. The impression prevailed, however, that the navy department probably would deal with the indiscretion in such a way as it deserved.

The letter was written by Rear Admiral Kautz to his cousin, Mrs. Charles N. Lindley of Cincinnati, and was made public by the recipient. It is dated March 23 and is as follows:

"You will probably read a lot of stuff about me in various newspapers and I can assure you that I am all right and have done nothing that I or my friends may be ashamed of, unless it is the making of a king, which I was obliged to do today. But he is a very inoffensive sort of a young fellow, 19 years of age. He wears a French admiral's cocked hat, but no shoes or stockings or trousers; still, considering the torrid weather, he looks very well in this climate. But I hardly think he would look well on Fourth street, Cincinnati.

"I am not a king here, but just plain 'boss of the ranch'. The German consul had that position up to my arrival, but since then he has been a very silent partner. I am very much afraid he does not like me—in fact I am not at all popular here with the Germans. But I am all right with the English, and hope to pull through with them. I have no doubt of being sustained by the government in all I have done. I hope to get away from here in a month from this time but will not be in San Francisco before the middle of May.

"With love to the Kentucky colonel and yourself, your cousin.

"ALBERT KAUTZ."

"P. S.—I was in error about the shoes and trousers of his royal highness. At the last moment his advisers prevailed on him to put both on, just for this occasion only."

The Kentucky colonel referred to is Mrs. Lindley's husband, who is on Gov. Bradley's staff.

The case of Captain Coghlan may be considered as finally closed. The German ambassador, Dr. Von Holleben, called at the White House Wednesday afternoon and had a conference on the subject with the president of such a satisfactory nature that the matter was regarded as settled.

During the day the navy department administered to Captain Coghlan the reprimand which had been determined upon. This was in the form of a letter from Secretary Long to the officer. It is stated at the department that the letter will not be made public until the officer has received it and probably not then.

San Pedro Harbor.

Los Angeles, April 27.—Work on the harbor at San Pedro commenced Wednesday when President McKinley pressed an electric button, which caused a rock laden barge to tilt its cargo on the spot where the contractors will begin their labors.

THE GRANT MONUMENT.

Thousands Attended the Unveiling of the Statue at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, April 27.—Final details of the ceremonies in connection with the unveiling of the Grant statue at Fairmont Park was completed Wednesday night and this morning everything was in readiness for the moment when Miss Rose Maria Sartoria, the granddaughter of "Grant," to loosen the folds of the snow white cloth which hid the statue from public gaze.

Long before noon the tide of travel began to move towards the central point of interest on the broad, picturesque park on the river drive over which the statue overlooks. Several hours before the ceremonies began every point of vantage was taken and crowds stretched along the river drive into the heart of the city along which the military marched.

During the morning the cruiser Raleigh rivalled the statue as an objective point of interest. Crowds thronged the docks along the river front or added to the wealth of boatmen and ferry companies in their desire to get a glimpse of the dull laden sides or the shining brass works of this famous fighter. The trim little cruiser was gaily decorated in honor of the occasion and few visitors were permitted to go aboard at intervals.

The Grant monument is exactly the same size as the one in Union Square, N. Y. It was designed by Daniel Chester French and Edward C. Potter, both American artists, the former modeled the figure of General Grant, and the latter the horse. They endeavored to depict the hero in a position as dignified and quietly imposing as the "silent man on horseback", and in so doing departed entirely from conventional. There is an absence of dramatic action shown in the prancing steed and waving sword. He is clad in a field garb, with high cavalry boots, a close buttoned coat and a long cape or coat falls in folds over the horse. The latter stands firmly on four feet, with its head turned slightly to one side. The whole aspect of the statue is one restrained of strength. The idea was conceived by the Fairmount Park Art association and was presented by that body to the city to be placed in the park. The height of the statue from the bottom to the top of the rider's hat is 15 feet. Total weight five tons. The pedestal is built of Jonesboro granite. The total cost was $32,675.

The president, cabinet and many distinguished persons were present.

Celebration at Galena.

Galena, Ills., April 27.—For the Seventh time in many years the citizens of Galena paid tribute to the memory of General U. S. Grant with exercises in commemoration of the anniversary of his birthday. The celebration was simple one under the auspices of Grant day association. Thousands of out of town visitors witnessed the exercises. The orator of the day was Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith.

MESSAGE FROM KAUTZ.

He Says Everything Quiet at Apia and He Is Not Pushing Rebels.

Washington, April 27.—The following cablegram has been received at the navy department from Admiral Kautz. It was sent from Auckland, April 27, and was dated at Apia, April 18:

"Receipt of telegram March 21, received here April 2, is acknowledged. Coal cannot be obtained at Apia; must be ordered from Auckland. Everything is quiet at Apia. I am not aggressive on Mataafa rebels, but am protecting the United States consulate, United States property and the Samoan government as established by the decision of chief Justice of the supreme court."

The navy department announces it has already completed arrangements for supplying coal to Admiral Kautz, and it will soon be at his command.

He Left Samoa.

Auckland, N. Z., April 27.—Von Buelow, former German lieutenant, who organized the forces of Mataafa, has left Samoa for the Tonga islands.

Spectacular Attempt at Suicide.

Wabash, Ind., April 27.—William Mason, aged 40 years, made a spectacular attempt at suicide on the public square of Columbia City. During the day he went the rounds of his acquaintances, telling them he intended to kill himself and bidding them farewell. He then took up his position on the main corner of the town, pulled out a new knife, whetted it on his shoe and plunged it repeatedly into his neck and left arm, striving to reach the arteries. Blood spurted in torrents from the wounds, and it was only after a savage struggle that a crowd bound him and turned him over to relatives. He may recover.

FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 1899.

In a divorce case where there was evidence that the wife called her husband "an old fool," the court says: "The record sustains the wife's judgment."

Several little scrimmages occured in the city during the past week, but there were no serious results. One young fellow while engaged in a "rucus," in a west-side saloon received a whack on the head with a beer bottle. After recovering from the blow the young man struck a bee-line to the Herald office and requested the reporter not to make mention of the affair as it "would injure him in society." That "society" may not be disturbed, we won't say a word about it!—Cameron Herald.

"The next time a traveling peddler calls at your door and tries to sell goods," sensibly remarks an exchange, "ask him if he will take your butter, and other farm products; ask him if when your neighbors get ready to build a new road bridge over the slough, if he is willing to donate a few dollars to help it along. Tell him of a poor family down the road, who would be thankful if he would donate a few provisions. Ask him if he will contribute to an enterprise just starting. If he agrees to all these things patronize him. Your home merchant will do this and much more."

taining class rooms, work rooms, dormitories, mess halls and offices, together with stables, dairies, granaries and other buildings necessary to the conduct of a well regulated farm.

"The gentlemanly cadets showed the visitors through the different departments, and explained their workings, from the laboratory, where the most difficult of scientific problems are solved, and the machine shops where students are fitted to fill the most responsible positions in the mechanical world, down to the stables where the interesting progress of raising calves by hand is carried on, proved conclusively the excellence of the courses of study in use and the thoroughness, with which everything is done, by the intelligent manner in which they explained the details of their work and by the familiarity they displayed with subjects of which the majority of young men of their age know nothing. In support of the statement that everything is done thoroughly, it may be said that the students in the laboratory are not only able to ascertain the exact amount of nutrition contained in any given kind of food for animals, but that, the subject being followed up along its various ramifications, the men in the dairy department can state accurately the amount of milk that food will produce when fed to the cow. This may appear somewhat exaggerated to the practicing farmer, but it is true nevertheless, and it all goes to show that farming may be made a science and a fine art instead of a mere experiment with the chances against successful results."

AMERICAN VICTORY.

What an English Newspaper Says of the Philippine War.

London, April 27.—The Daily Mail says in reference to the American victory in the Philippines:

"The Americans are to be congratulated warmly upon the victory which they have won at Calumpit. Now at last it looks as though the back of the Filipinos resistance had been broken and Englishmen will be particularly glad of this fact as they alone appreciate to the full the difficulties with which their cousins have had to contend with. The victory is all the more welcome, and all the more grateful to us because we have been watching with deep interest the efforts of a political party in the United States to humiliate the nation and the government by persuading them to a disgraceful and cowardly retreat.

"This party is insignificant in strength and influence, but what it lacks in this direction it makes up for by its lung power. It has gone to the length of endeavoring to induce American volunteers to demand their recall in the face of the enemy. To the eternal credit of these volunteers, be it said, that few have acted upon this treacherous and unpatriotic instigation.

"The American people may well be proud of their soldiers. By the very nature of things, volunteers enlisted for a short war with a civilized enemy, are not the troops best fitted for work at a great distance from their country, or for a tedious, protracted and harassing struggle with an uncivilized foe in a tropical climate. But the valor and determination of volunteers and regulars have been such that they have not once been worsted in battle.

"If Aguinaldo has a head on his shoulders he will see that the time has come for him to submit to the inevitable."

The Sultana Disaster.

Cleveland, April 27.—Nearly 100 survivors of the Sultana disaster are gathered here in annual convention, the occasion being the thirty-fifth anniversary of the event. The session is largely devoted to addresses and reports of officers. Each year shows a marked decrease in membership from death, and the past year has been no exception in this respect. The Sultana was a Mississippi river boat. On April 27, 1859, she was working her way up the river when a terrible explosion occurred. In the ensuing half an hour hundreds of lives were lost. The disaster was considered one of the most appalling of the civil war. The Sultana was loaded down with soldiers.

They Found no Work.

Pana, Ills., April 27.—When the 200 negroes and nonunion white miners reported for work at the Pana Coal company's mine Wednesday morning they were told that there was no work for them and that the mine had been closed down indefinitely. They fear that the much talked about settlement of the strike is about to come to a reality.

The Negro Caught.

Dallas, April 27.—Luther Caradine, the negro who attempted to assault Mrs.
Belle Cunningham at her home here Wednesday night, is in the city hospital suffering from several knife wounds and is under guard.
J. W. Johnson, who went to the assistance of the woman, cut the negro with a knife, but he escaped at the time.

Judge Caldwell to Retire.

Des Moines, April 27.—It is announced in Iowa political circles that Judge Caldwell of Arkansas, circuit judge of the Eighth circuit, including Iowa, is to retire in a few months on account of failing health, and that Judge O. P. Shiras of Dubuque, now district judge of the northern Iowa district, will succeed him.

Large Copper Mine Discovered.

Tacoma, April 27.—The largest copper mine ever discovered in the west has been found in the carbon district north of Mount Ranier, and 61 miles east of this city. The ore is said to be similar in character and geological situation as that found in Montana, and to be fully as rich as that found in the Butte mines.

Comal Reaches New York.

New York, April 27.—The United States transport Comal, Captain Evans, has arrived here from Havana with 64 passengers and 150 discharged American soldiers. Among the former are John Gary Evans, ex-governor of South Carolina, and Estes G. Rathbone, director general of the postal system of Cuba.

Killed by a Falling Tree.

Lake Charles, La., April 27.—While a crowd of men were felling trees near Vinton a tree partly cut became lodged.
A man named Patterson while disengaging the tree got under it, and before he noticed it the tree came down, crushing his head and shoulders to a pulp.

Revenue Fleet to Sail.

San Francisco, April 27.—The United States revenue cutter fleet will soon make a start for northern waters. The Bear, Rush and Corwin have been ordered to be ready for sea by next Saturday.

Was Promptly Acquitted.

Weatherford Tex., April 27.—In the case of P. W. Roberts, on a charge of forgery, the jury was out only about 20 minutes and returned a verdict of not guilty.

Seventy-five New Cases.

El Paso, Tex., April 27.—Dr. M. F.
Desmaral, formerly health officer of Dona Ana county, N. M., now in the says there are 75 cases of smallpox at Las Cruces.

A POSITIVE DECLARATION.

WHAT you want, expect and pay for, you ought to have. When you buy "all wool" and it proves half cotton, it naturally sets you to thinking.
When "half price" bargains prove to be high priced ones it causes more suspicion. We want the store to be like Caesar's wife, "above suspicion."
That's why all wool means all wool and a bargain is a bargain here.

Think of this when you want a suit.
You will get an honest suit here, one with that permanency of the fit which comes from correct tailoring, combined with perfectly woven clothes of dependable woolsens, that shape holding quality which stays with the suit till it's worn out.

We intend making this the most momentous season in the history of our store. If goods and prices are reliable indications, the accomplishment of our object is already assured.

THE ANTITRUST LAW HELD CONSTITUTIONAL.

Judge Martin so Decides, but Limits the Force of Offense to the State of Arkansas.

Little Rock, April 23.—Judge Martin of the circuit court has rendered a decision upholding the constitutionality of the antitrust law, but limits the force of offenses committed to the state of Arkansas.

The attorney general construed the law to cover ratemaking by insurance companies in Arkansas or elsewhere, thus excluding old line companies from the state.

Judge Martin holds the state has the right to exclude all foreign corporations and prohibit them from doing business in the state, but cannot punish corporations or individuals of violations of penal code committed in other states.

NEGRO FOUND DEAD.

His Body Was Riddled With Bullets Near a Town in Georgia.

Leesburg, Ga., April 27.—The body of Mitchell Daniel, a negro was found on the road near here early today, riddled with bullets. The man who came in to notify the coroner says he does not know the dead man, but heard shooting before daylight. Daniel and other negroes recently made inflammatory talks against a family named Laramore and others charging them with complicity in a lynching near here some time ago. Three negroes about a week ago tried to force an entrance into a room occupied by Mrs. William Laramore. Her screams brought help and the parties ran, but dogs trailed them to their home. The Daniels were supposed to be implicated in this affair. Following this outrage Laramore's house was fired into a few days ago.

TORNADO IN NEBRASKA.

One Boy Killed and Several Hurt and Much Property Destroyed.

Omaha, April 27.—A tornado is reported 20 miles west of Omaha, Ia. Three persons are reported killed and great damage to property. The storm broke about 10 o'clock Wednesday night.

The house of George Ferrin, three miles from Ute, was totally demolished and the contents scattered. His 10-year-old boy was instantly killed, and Mr. and Mrs. Ferrin and five daughters are not expected to live.

A good deal of damage was done to other property, but it is not known whether any more lives are lost or not.

Want Coghlan Punished.

Berlin, April 27.—The morning papers here, owing to the report of fresh telegrams from London giving further details of the feeling in America, are almost unanimous in insisting that Capt. Coghlan must be adequately punished. They declare that it is only quibbling to say that he spoke in a private club, as his subsequent proceedings prove he has no objection to publicity. The song about the Kaiser excites far more indignation than the revelations about Dewey's difficulties with Dieckreichts. The government, however, will take no official action, although it is expected that Captain Coghlan will receive punishment commensurate with his offense. One newspaper calls his utterances criminal.

After Forty Years He Turns Up.

Alton, Ill., April 27.—Edwin Sawyer, long thought to be dead, has turned up at his old home in Upper Alton, after an absence of nearly 40 years. Sawyer left Upper Alton in 1862 to join the Federal army. When the war was over he began wandering about the world, and during his travels he visited Africa and Asia. In the wilds of Africa he claims to have traversed jungles without the cheer or aid of a companion. Mr. Sawyer is well preserved in physique, but his hair is snowy white. He will make his home with relatives in Upper Alton.

Carriage of Supplies Barred.

Sedalia, Mo., April 27.—The Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway company has issued an order to all trainmen forbidding the carriage of supplies from one station to another. This order is intended to do away with the practice so common among employees of buying butter, eggs and farm produce in the country and carrying it to their city homes. The order is effective at once, and will have a visible effect on the markets at division points.

Placed on Trial.

Philadelphia, April 27.—Former United States District Attorney Emory P. Ingram and Harvey K. Newitt, who was Ingram's assistant, were arraigned before United States Commissioner Edmunds on the charge of attempting to bribe Secret Service Operative William J. McManus, in connection with the Jacobs-Kendig-Taylor-Bredell stamp counterfeiting conspiracy.

Many Seized on the Pacific.

San Francisco, April 27.—Up to date 136,000 cigars in boxes bearing counterfeit revenue stamps issued by a Pennsylvania firm have been seized in this city. Some of them were sold as low as $7.85 per 1000, while the genuine stamps alone would have cost $3.60 for each 1000 cigars.

Schley's New Position.

Washington, April 27.—Rear Admiral Howell has been relieved as senior member of the retiring board. He is succeeded by Schley, heretofore a member of the examining board.

THE EXTENSION OF
CUBAN MORTGAGES.

It Grants Two Years' Time in Which These Debts Are to Be Paid and Greatly Relieves the Sugar Planters.

Havana, April 27. — Major General Chaffee, chief of staff to the governor general, and Senor Desvernine, secretary of the treasury in the insular cabinet, have returned from Washington and their appearance at Vedado was signalized by the promulgation of the long looked for mortgage extension decree. The new order, is brief, simply announcing that two year's time from May 1 will be granted for the payment of mortgages on realty now due or which may become due within that period.

General satisfaction had been expressed with the government's action in granting two more year's of grace, though the land owners were disposed to ask a greater extension, and the radical Separatist politicians are a little exercised over the idea that the authorities at Washington should give any legal or political guarantee with two full years to run.

Governor General Brooke has not yet received from the secretary of justice the decree he ordered prepared abolishing the odious legal custom of incommunication. The decree when issued will go further than the mere annulment of this conspicuous abuse in the old Spanish criminal code. It will eliminate many other severities now practiced in the criminal administration and provide for the submission in open court of all charges against a prisoner.

The multiplication of labor strikes demonstrates the quick root American ideas are taking in Cuba. A week or two ago the employees of the United railroad of Havana struck for higher wages but military exigencies soon broke the tie up. In Cienfuegos the stevedores quit work and secured a higher rate of wages.

At all the piers except that used by the quartermaster's department in Havana, there have been half a dozen minor labor disturbances which seem to have culminated in two new strikes, one by the longshoremen, at the big San Jose wharf and the other by the employees of the Havana waterworks company. In both cases the strikers are holding out for a material increase in wages.

The Cuban mail service is also becoming highly Americanized. Letter boxes of the American model still frustrate native efforts to solve their mechanism, the letter carriers are soon to don a uniform which will rival those of the customhouse employees and of the municipal police. Early next month another innovation is to be tried—a special mail car, with all the modern conveniences for collection and distribution en route. At present the railway mail clerk has to do his work on the bench of a second-class car.

La Lucha in its Spanish edition has a timely rebuke for these native extremists who are now painting the situation in unrelieved black. No other people, it says, has suffered a transformation so absolute and complete as have the Cubans with fewer disagreeable incidents and fewer disorders. A country which, apart from the capitals and productive centers, has since August last been left practically to itself, without any other protection than that its inhabitants could improvise, has given great proof that moderation since the isolated disorders which have occurred are nothing compared to what has happened in other countries under analogous circumstances. The future of Cuba, La Lucha concludes, so far from being insecure and uncertain, appears both hopeful and flattering.

Six cases of yellow fever have come to light in the last 10 days, but with the continuance of cool, dry weather, no serious spread of this disease is anticipated. The death rate of the city continues unusually light.

Captain George C. Gibbs Dead.

TEXAS LEGISLATURE.

Several Bills Disposed of by the Senate and the House.

Austin, April 27.—About the usual number of petitions on the antitrust bill were received and read in the senate yesterday.

The senate passed the house concurrent resolution recalling from the governor Mr. Teagles's bill creating a more efficient road system for Liberty county. The bill providing for the teaching of humane treatment to animals in the public schools, was passed.

House bill by Mr. Maxwell and Caldwell granting a block of ground to the city of Austin for school purposes, passed finally by a vote of 14 to 7.

On motion of Mr. Savage the regular order of business in the house was suspended and the senate bill to amend article 4218Y of chapter 129, acts of the Twenty-fifth legislature, providing for the sale of isolated and detached lands in certain counties, was taken up on its third reading. The bill was passed.

Senate bill to incorporate the city of Beaumont, to grant it a special charter and fix its boundaries was passed.

Senate bill to authorize the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway company to purchase or lease the Sherman, Shreveport and Southern Railway company was taken up, discussed and was pending business when the house recessed until the night session.

The night session was devoted to the general appropriation bill.

Murder and Suicide.

Texarkana, Ark., April 27.—A Mexican shot and instantly killed a young lady named Alice Archer on her father's farm near Boggy. The Mexican suicided immediately after the affair. He had been employed on the Archer farm and fell in love with the young lady. His attentions were refused, however. The action of the young lady exasperated the Mexican and he stole to the house with a Winchester and committed the deed while the father was in the field.

Little Further Respite.

Greenville, Tex., April 27.—Sheriff Patton has received a telegram from Governor Sayers granting a further respite of the execution of Charley Little until Thursday, May 4. Little's attorney is in Austin to personally intercede with the governor for a commutation of Little's sentence to life imprisonment. This second respite has cheered Little considerably and gives him hope that the governor will act favorably on the petition sent in his behalf.

National Troops Take Part.

Savannah, April 27.—The feature of the memorial day exercise here was the presence at the head of the procession of two companies of the Second United States infantry under command of Lieutenant John L. Hines, and the firing by that body of the customary salute to the dead at the Confederate monument in Forsyth Square. This is probably the first time in history when a salute in honor of dead Confederates has been fired by regular troops of the Federal army.

Wind Storm in Nebraska.

Stedward, April 27.—A terrible wind storm, approaching almost to the fury of a hurricane, swept over this place Wednesday night, doing a great deal of damage to property and injuring several persons. Easton, Pa., April 27.—Three men were killed by a fall of slate in the Pon Argyle Valley quarry, 20 miles from this place. Two hundred tons of slate and dirt fell into the hole and Edward Harding and Joseph D. Gorman were buried under it with no hope of recovering their bodies, inside of two days. A third man, an Italian, was cut in two.

Fire in a Mississippi Town.

Lulu, April 27.—Fire destroyed more than $100,000 worth of property in the business portion of this place. The blaze started in the office of the Weekly Messenger, but from what cause could not be learned. The Yazoo and Mississippi station was among the buildings burned. Insurance not known.

Gold Excitement in Arkansas.

Little Rock, April 27.—Ore assaying $1000 in gold to the ton has been taken out of the side of Blowout mountain, in Polk county and since Saturday night every claim within a radius of a mile of the discovery has been staked. Farmers have quit their field work and gone prospecting.

Ratified Treaty Delivered.

Paris, April 27.—The secretary of the French embassy at Washington, M. Thiebaut, arrived here Wednesday and handed the Spanish-American treaty of peace to the Spanish ambassador, Senor Leon y Castello, who immediately sent it to Spain.

A Boy Shot and Killed.

Gonzales, Tex., April 27.—A boy named McPherson was fatally shot at Lone Oak. A negro named Sam Williams has been arrested, charged with the killing.

Off for Samon.

San Francisco, April 27.—The Badger, with the Samoan commission on board sailed Wednesday afternoon for Apia. The steamer will probably stop at Honolulu for coal.

Eagan May Be Restored.
